-The New York Express says: "Last spring it was roughly calculated that the shipments of cotton allowing for all overland drains to Eastern ports and for all other drawbacks, would not the planter $25 000 000. There was some incredulity of this estimate. What are the real figures? To last Friday the average rescipts at Mobile may be set down at 227 000 bales at an inside catimate. The price ha averaged a fraction over twenty-three conts. giving a gross return of about $27,000,000. Thus the unfinished season has largely &ceeded the spring estimate of the whole."

Contracts were made for freight trans ortation over the Eric Railway on Saturday at as low a figure as twelve eits per hundred, and an agreement was made for the carrying of five hundred thousand bushels of wheat from Buffaio to New York at eleven and a baif cents per bushel. During the freight competition between the Central and Erie, s year ago, the lowest price reacted was ten cents and it is very probable that this rate will be reached again before the quarrel is settled. The effect of these remarkably chesp lands upon the railroad stocks in Wall and Broad streets is depressing, as the roads cannot be made to pay at the price. The Erie line sent West on Saturlay and Suntay five hundred cars fully toaded with goods and merchan-dise. The Central Road is also crowded with goods, and extra trains are running night and day, but the freight accumulates very rapidly. On Saturday all the available cars were filled. Seven long extra trains were sent out on Mon-day. The Eric Canal is or will be virtually closed if the war continues, as it cannot compete with steam bos 95

This suit was first brought into court by the distinguished ocunsel who conducted it to the end, Charles O'Copor, Esq., some time in the latter part of 1850 or the beginning of 1851. The trial before a jury was begun in November. 1851, but the decision of the Court of Appeals, finally affirming the judgment then rendered against Mr. Forrest was not pronounced until 1868. It is fair to say, however, that this long prograstination was not entirely due to the tactics of the defendant's attorneys; for on one occasion Mr. O'Conor stated in court that the lackes of counsel for the plaintiff had considerably protracted the proceedings. The amount ultimately paid over by the defendant, upon the decision of the Court of Appeals, was something more than $60,000. Of this large sum the plaintiff recoved but about $4000. The remainder-$56 000 -went to pay the fees of the counsel, Mr. O'Ucnor and his associate the interest upon these fees, and other expenses. The item of interest on fees alon mounted to some $13 000, while the interest on various advances made by the counsel in the course of the suit amounted to something like $5000 more. In the trial of this case Mr. O'Conor added greatly to his professional reptuation, and since that time has been general ly considered as standing at the head of the Newspaper Cash Receipts.

As a matter of interest to our readers generally, and especially to our advertisers, who have so liberally availed themselves of the wide and constantly growing circulation of THE NEWS, we give below a statement from the books of the City Assessor, showing the gross receipts of the daily newspapers of Charleston for the seven months ending July 81:

A correspondent informs us that the State tax which he paid last year on a tract of land on the Combahee River was $90, while this year the tax on the same tract um unte to $608 50, the land being assessed at over double the sum which would be taken for it in cash. Our correspondent asks whether this tax is constitutional, and whether its collection can be enforced?

There has been much discussion and agitation in the State on the subject of the State taxes, and, at one time, it was likely that in many countles the people would fixtly refuse to pay the increased assess-Now, however, it seems to be admitted that there is no hope of redress through the courts, and that we must wait patiently until the day comes when the property in the State may be assessed at its true value, according to the theory of the gained by an application to the State Audia convergation between two colored citizens of tor, who, in several instances, has reduced san Francisco: Well. Jim I suppose you like the assessment. The increase in the tax the essessment. The increase in the tax demanded of our correspondent cannot apparently be accounted for by the change of system which came into effect this year, and ne is advised, with all others so situa ted, to make a representation of the facts to the State Auditor. This can do no harm.

The Wickedest Man in Congress.

Congressman Bowen informs the Wash ington correspondents of the Northern press that he is not "a thief, forger and p murderer" We shall have a word to say apon that point when Bowen really does nstitute the legal proceedings which he talks so glibly. There is no de sire on our part to balk Bowen In the interests of civilization and the American Congress, we are willing that the name of THE CHARLESTON NEWS should be tempo rarily associated with that of Bowen; and for the cake of decency and bumanity, we are ready to do our part in telling the little tale of stealing fare checks, forging pay rolls, and plotting the murder of a Confede rate officer

But if Congressman Bowen denies the charges of theft, forgery and murder, can he deny that he was in Jacksonville, Fla. in the end of 1861 or 1862? Can be deny that he set fire to stores and private dwellings on the occasion of the evacuation of saksonville by the Confederate forces? Can he deny that he stole at that time a large quality of goods and merchandine from the store of C L Robinson, a Unten min? Can be deny the damning history which we print in our columns this morn-

When Congressman Bowen has disposed of these charges, there will be more to follow, and the "Hinorable member" may hope to make at least a million dollars in damages out of THE CHARLESTON NEWS.

The Canvas, in ohio.

The nomination of Mr. George H Pendieton as the Democratic candidate for Governor of Onio has given general satisfaction. By the press throughout the country this nomination is taken as a sign that the Ohio Democracy will make a fair and square issue with their opponents. Mr. Pendleton is a man of high personal character and of undoubted ability, and he is, in every sense of the word, a true representative of the

The Cincinnati Loquirer, one of the most influential dailies in the West, is filed with confidence and hope. It says :

"The complete and unquestionable identitication of Mr. Poud oton with the position taken by the Democracy in their platform upon the great qu s ions of tue finances, negre suffrage and the tariff guarantees us against the pessibility that any conceivable tactics of the enemy can divert the attention of the people from these paramount issues of the compaign. -The New York San ways: "One of the In a fair con est upon these lastice, a Demo-

We congratulate the Dem-ocracy and the people of the State upon the auspicious result of the committee's delibera-tions; a result which we cannot doubt will insure the final overthrow of Radication in Ohio on the second Tuesday of next October." Nor do the Onio Radicule conceal their feeling that there is hard work in store for them if they would avoid defeat. The Cincinnati Commercial, a thorough Radical sheet, says:

'The Democratic party is formidable in numbers and in discipline, and the friends of Peudleton, who have forced this nomination upon him will make a prodigious effort to elechim. It may be depended upon that he wil get more votes than Rosecrans could have received, and that the Ohio campaign this fall will at once attract attention throughout the country as of national significance."

Aud Horace Greeley, in the Tribune, trankly admits that the Oaio Republicans must labor untiringly to be successful.

Certain it is that the Ohio Domocrats, in nominating Mr. Pendleton, abandon all compromise measures, and go into the canvass upon the great questions of negro suffrage, the finances and the tariff. There are live issues, appreciated and understood by every Western man. Against them the Radicals cannot set up with effect their old shibboleth of the blacks and Southern reconstruction. The Democrats stand on the platform of the constitution and demand a strict adherence to its principles as interpreted by the party. And while this war cry must come home to the heart of the merchant, the farmer and the artisan, these will cling to the D mucracy who de mand free trade, purity or government and the equal taxation of all classes of people. The Radicals have not a single sound principle upon which to make their fight. Their corruption, their tyranny, their extravagance, their protection doctrine, their defence of the bondholder against the plough holder, their exaltation of the negro over the Southern white man, have disgusted the country; and even Republicans look for salvation to the only true exponents of republican principles—the Democracy of the United States. Honest Republicans cannot logger endure the iniquities of their Radical companions, and in Ohio, now that the "expediency dodge" has been abandoned, they should fall like ripe apples into the lap of the Democracy.

The prospects in Ohio are bright, indeed; and with George H. Pendleton as their leader: our Demogratic brethern of the West should hay - no doubt of victory.
